METHODS OF CONSUMPTION

Delta-8

100% Hemp derived, provides a relaxation for body and mind with less chance of anxiety. Available in all forms from edibles, tinctures, capsules, and smokables. We got what you're looking for!

Tinctures

Sublingual (under the tongue) drops are a great bioavailable way to maximize the therapeutic benefits of hemp oil extract. Combined with pure MCT coconut oil our custom blends provide the highest quality solutions to fit your individual needs.

Edibles

Discreet and simple way to consume hemp products. Depending on your metabolism, effects aren't immediate, but are generally longer lasting.

Topicals

Our beauty and spa products are enhanced with CBD to support skincare, muscle soreness/recovery, and joint health. Nourish your body with natural ingredients, packed full of antioxidant and anti-inflammatory properties.

Flowers

The fastest acting, most natural method of consumption, experience the entourage effect with a full panel of organic cannabinoids & terpenes.

Pets

Pets have an endocannabinoid system too, just like us hoomans. Easy to give as yummy tinctures/ snacks made with love. We have created a line of amazing animal friendly treats that support everyday health as well as gives the perfect amount of CBD for your furry friends.

Raw Material

Create your own products with third party lab tested, locally sourced, organic hemp derived concentrates. To provide the best solutions our lab operates with GMP practices to ensure the highest quality and safety standards.
